HEADQUARTERS
FAR EAST
MILITARY INTELLIGENCE SECTION, GENERAL STAFF
MILITARY INTELLIGENCE SERVICE GROUP/FAR EAST

27 August 1952

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is written in appreciation of the valuable services rendered by Mr Haruo Yanagita to the Translation Section, Military Intelligence Service Group, Far East, from 31 Mar 46 to 27 Aug 52.

As Team Captain of the English-Japanese Language Team, Mr Yanagita was responsible for the polished production of translations of intelligence documents covering an extreme range of subject matter. The efforts Mr Yanagita has put forth on behalf of this Section during the abovementioned period have contributed decisively to its ability to meet and satisfy every requirement placed on it. In times of stress and added responsibilities, particularly those occasioned by the Korean War, his steadfast loyalty and constant display of an exemplary level of initiative, sense of responsibility and diligence have been a definite asset to the Section.

The undersigned highly recommends Mr Yanagita for whatever position may be available to him and firmly believes that he will be of great value to his new employer.
